2026 USTC International Students Graduation Memory Book

2026年中国科学技术大学国际学院毕业纪念册

These past years in USTC have been a journey of growth, challenge, and warmth. I'm grateful for the knowledge gained, friendships made, and every sunrise on campus. Though I can't be there in Hefei for the offline ceremony, my heart stays with my fellow graduates. Thank you to my teachers, classmates, and everyone who made this experience unforgettable. Congratulations to us all may our next chapters be just as bright. Once a USTC student, always one.

SIFFAT ULLAH KHAN

These past years at USTC have been an unforgettable journey of growth, friendship, and discovery. Thank you to my professors for inspiring curiosity, to my friends for making every challenge lighter, and to my family for unwavering support. Though we're parting ways, the memories we've created, will stay with me forever.
Here's to new adventures, lifelong bonds, and the courage to make a difference.
Once a family, always a family.

PhD is hard, All those 2 a.m. battles, the data that played hide-and-seek, the chair you molded into the shape of your exhaustion—it all meant something.
Today, you traded "candidate" for "doctor," and somewhere your past self is grinning.
Go feel the sun. Hug your people. Eat cake for breakfast.
You carried a question all the way to an answer. And that's not just smart. That's magic.
Congratulations, Doctor.

My time at USTC has been an unforgettable journey of growth, friendship, and discovery.
I am deeply grateful to my professors for their guidance, to my classmates for their support and to the International College for making us feel at home far from home. To every international student who struggled and persevered alongside me: we did it.
China will always hold a special place in my heart.
Thank you, USTC, for believing in me.
Congratulations to all my fellow graduates may our futures shine as brightly as our memories here !

USTC has been more than a university to me, it has been a place of growth, discovery, and unforgettable memories. From challenging research moments to precious friendships, every experience here has shaped my academic journey and personal life. As an international student, Hefei became my second home, and USTC will always hold a special place in my heart. I am deeply grateful to my professors, mentors, classmates, and friends for their support and inspiration. Although graduation marks the end of this chapter, the spirit and memories of USTC will stay with me forever. Thank you, USTC, for this beautiful journey.

My doctoral journey at the School of Material Science and Engineering, University of Science and Technology of China(September 2021- June 2026) has been an invaluable chapter of my life. I extend my deepest gratitude to the supervisor for his rigorous academic guidance and unwavering support, and to my fellow colleagues for their companionship and inspiration. USTC has not only equipped me with profound knowledge but also cultivated in me the spirit of preserving and integrity embodied in our motto: 'Red and noble, both virtuous and excellent.' As I embark on the next chapter, I carry USTC's legacy with pride and humility.

Looking back at my time at USTC, I see not only textbooks and laboratories, but also a second home filled with warmth, challenge, and discovery. From my first nervous steps on campus to the confident ones I take today, every moment here has shaped who I am.
I will always remember the quiet mornings in the library, the lively discussions in the cafeteria, and the breathtaking view of the autumn leaves on East Campus. More than the knowledge I gained from lectures, I treasure the friendships I built across cultures, the patience of my professors, and the kindness of the International College staff, who never hesitated to help us feel at home.
Graduation is not an end, but a beautiful beginning. USTC has given me wings, and now it's time to fly. Wherever my future takes me, a part of my heart will forever remain by the old library, in Guo Moruo Square, and among the wonderful people I met here.
Thank you, USTC. Thank you, my dear classmates. Here's to our past, our present, and the brilliant journeys ahead.

In the grand divine decree, my 2023 to 2026 journey was a mere heartbeat in the timeline of the cosmos, yet it became a profound tapestry of growth. Like a traveler on a sacred path, I was guided through a nomadic orbit across the history of East Campus, the modern horizons of Suzhou, and the stillness of the High-tech zone. Navigating these distinct realms taught me that home is not a fixed coordinate on earth, but a heart anchored in perseverance. In a blink of time, the Almighty aligned my path with a beautiful global family, proving that the briefest passages can carve the deepest spiritual valleys into our souls.

We arrived from different countries, united by the decision to study far from home. Along the way, we faced struggles that few outside this experience will fully understand: learning in a language not our own, adapting to an unfamiliar culture, and meeting the demands of rigorous academic work all at once. That we stand here today as graduates is a reflection of the determination each of us carried through those years. Congratulations to every one of us. May we hold these memories with gratitude, find joy in every stage of the journey ahead, and remain ready for both farewells and new beginnings. Time moves forward without pause, and so shall we.

记得 2023 年 4 月我只身一人从槟城来到合肥的场景。转机的辛劳、沟通的困难、炎热的天气和旅人的孤独。一路上的奔波固然幸苦，但我知道属于我的九九八十一难才刚刚开始。然而我非常幸运的在这里见到了许多来自世界各国的朋友，我们相知相伴一路上互相扶持。其中不乏文化上的交流，也有思想上的碰撞。如同《The Black Swan》中所说，人生的一切是未知的。我们能做的就是尽量去体验、去开阔未知。我很幸运选择了科大，选择了遇见大家。愿我们彼此都能有《The Beginning of Infinity》中所提的乐观和勇气。共同为这个世界和人类文明建构一个美好的未来。这是我人生中极其精彩的几年。愿我们大家前程似锦，一生幸福~

I walked into USTC with a backpack and questions I couldn't yet ask. Sunrise walks around the campus lake. Late night dinners with friends who became family. The Chinese language and culture wrapped around me like a second home, turning strangers into brothers and a foreign city into familiar ground. USTC handed me tools, patience, and people who laughed through every failure. The real story was everything in between. As I step forward, I carry one truth: the best journeys begin where comfort ends. "The unknown is not a barrier; it is the beginning of every breakthrough."

I came to USTC three years ago with a lot of nerves and very little idea what lay ahead. What I found was a community that took me in, late nights worth staying up for, and classmates and teachers who felt like family. Hefei became home in ways I didn't plan. Leaving is bittersweet, but mostly I just feel lucky and happy for coming here. It was the best time of my life, something I'll never forget and always miss.

Dr. Muhammad Fayaz from Pakistan (Dir Lower) completed his PhD in Physics at USTC (2022–2026), specializing in Computational Physics and advanced materials research. Using Density Functional Theory (DFT), his research focused on novel Two-Dimensional (2D) materials and nanostructures for next-generation technologies. Through innovation, scientific research, and publications in high-impact international journals, his work contributed meaningfully to the advancement of materials science. During his studies, he was also honored with the USTC Academic Excellence Award (2024/2025) in recognition of his outstanding academic performance and research achievements.
His comments:
"It was a great honor for me to join USTC in 2022. USTC was not just the place where I earned my PhD degree in Physics, but the place that transformed my life and gave me the opportunity to achieve my dreams. During this journey, I met inspiring scientists and leaders, built unforgettable friendships, and grew both academically and personally. I am proud to be a USTCer and forever grateful for the memories, knowledge, and inspiration this experience gave me. Receiving the Academic Excellence Award and earning the title of Dr. Muhammad Fayaz are among the proudest moments of my life."

I am Tehmina Akram from Pakistan, Department of Chemistry. Studying at USTC was once a dream, and today, as I graduate, I look back with immense gratitude and pride. My PhD journey was far from easy; it was filled with countless hours in the laboratory, late-night experiments, failed reactions, and repeated attempts to find the right solution. There were moments of frustration and self-doubt, but each challenge strengthened my determination and taught me the value of perseverance. The excitement of a successful experiment after weeks or months of effort made every struggle worthwhile. Beyond research, USTC gave me lifelong friendships, invaluable lessons, and unforgettable memories. I am deeply grateful to my supervisor, colleagues, friends, and family for their support throughout this journey. I will always cherish the experiences and growth that these years have brought me.

From late-night study sessions to celebrating small victories together, every moment has shaped who I am today. Thank you to my professors, family, and friends who believed in me along the way. International College has been a home away from home. Though we're heading in different directions, the memories we made will forever connect us. This chapter may be ending, but the impact of this journey will stay with us forever.

These years have been a journey of discovery, challenge, and growth. I am deeply grateful to my professors for their guidance, to my friends for their support, and to my family for their unwavering belief in me. International College has given me not just knowledge, but also a broader perspective and lifelong connections. As we step into the future, let us carry curiosity, courage, and kindness wherever we go. Congratulations to all my fellow graduates , this is not an end, but a beautiful beginning. Thank you, International College, for everything.

I am thankful to USTC for four transformative years that nurtured my growth in detection technology and intelligent systems. Behind every late night in the lab and every extra effort was a deep dream to master this field. Today, as I graduate, I feel I have largely realized that dream. From challenging interdisciplinary projects to inspiring visits at automobile companies such as Chery and NIO, I have gained advanced skills in visual perception, control, and planning, along with lifelong friendships and cherished memories.
I am truly proud to be part of the USTC community. As we step into the next phase of our lives, let us carry forward the USTC spirit of perseverance and innovation, and contibute meaningfully to the advancement of technology and society. Thank You!

Message for USTC Graduates:

Dear USTC Graduates:

USTC has welcomed students from various corners of the world, creating a vibrant and diverse community. You have demonstrated remarkable adaptability, embracing technology to continue your education and forge connections across borders. In doing so, you have broadened your horizons and become ambassadors of goodwill, fostering understanding and promoting harmony in an increasingly interconnected world.

In your pursuit of excellence, we encourage you to remain lifelong learners. Embrace curiosity, question the status quo, and remain open to new ideas and perspectives. Cultivate a passion for knowledge that transcends disciplinary boundaries and embrace interdisciplinary collaborations that lead to groundbreaking discoveries. USTC has equipped you with knowledge and skills, armed you with a broadened mind and a diligent soul, and shaped you into a qualified USTC graduate ready for future adventures.

As you step out into the world, remember to be bold, compassionate, and humble in your pursuits. Embrace unity, seek excellence, and be agents of positive change in our global society. We will always stand behind you and welcome you back to the USTC campus. We are eager to keep in touch with our alumni and invite you to reach out to us at intlalumni@ustc.edu.cn (International Students Alumni) after graduation. May your futures be filled with boundless opportunities and achievements.
